

A white Sancerre with a strong character and multiple aromatic nuances, between flint and a bouquet of spices. A flinty wine above all else.

SANCERRE BLANC « La Bourgeoise »

TERROIR: Silex

BEST SERVED AT: 11-12°C (51-53°F)

AGEING POTENTIAL: 10 to 12 years

VITICULTURE & TERROIR

- Old Sauvignon blanc vines grown on a rich flinty terroir of the Sancerre appellation (Saint-Satur)
- Deliberately low yields with high density cultivation and grassing between the rows
- Use of organic fertilizers only

WINEMAKING

- Alcoholic fermentation carried out partly in temperature-controlled stainless steel vats and partly in Tronçais oak barrels
- Aged on fine lees for 12 months with regular stirring during the first 7 to 8 months
- After bottling, the wine rests in our cellars for several months before being marketed

PAIRING

« La Bourgeoise » offers an elegance and freshness that will accompany beautifully your white meats and poultry.

Our gastronomic suggestions:

- Grilled quail in a sauce ;
- Roast guinea fowl Alsatian style;
- Pheasant with quince.

TASTING

- Eye Gold, shiny
- Nose Gunflint and spices
- Palate Remarkably well-balanced, unrivalled finesse and concentration

« La Bourgeoise » offers incomparable balance and concentration. Its nose, composed of notes of gunflint and spices, will also recall the Sauvignon flower and its sap. A proud and intense wine, which will reveal all its elegance and finesse over the years.
